AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION ADDS SECOND AMENDMENT SUBCOMMITTEE

LONG BEACH, CA: The Civil Rights Litigation Committee of the American Bar Association Section of Litigation has formed a Second Amendment Subcommittee.

The subcommittee is chaired by civil rights litigator, Bobbie K. Ross. Her practice areas include firearms-related litigation and regulatory matters, municipal law, state legislation, constitutional law, and general civil litigation.

The subcommittee joins other Civil Rights Litigation subcommittees, including those addressing the First Amendment, Criminal Justice, Disability Discrimination, and Race/National Origin/Language Discrimination, among others.

Among the subcommittee's goals is encouraging frank and honest discussion regarding the Second Amendment. As the right to keep and bear arms can be something of a controversial issue, the subcommittee encourages individuals from both sides of the aisle to engage in honest discussion on legal theory and policy surrounding the right recently deemed fundamental.

Look forward to more information about the subcommittee's activities and events coming soon. Those interested in civil
